Summary

Content writing is not just about writing words; it's about choosing the right words. I'm an anxious and passionate team player with diversified skills and content writing experience. However, an investment in authentic learning is a better safeguard for a bright future.

I am an MSc (Animal sciences) graduate from Karakorum International University. I have real-time experience as a content writer. My specialization as a content writer includes Web Content, Blog writing, Ghostwriting, Copywriting, Social media content creation, and Technical writing.

I'm looking forward to talking with you.
